

As a homeowner we have been enjoying the privacy that the Indiana Do-Not-Call List gives to my family. I do not want to go back to the days of being annoyed by the constant phone ringing with offers from aggressive and annoying telemarketers, especially credit card offers from banks! I do not wish the Consumer Bankers Association to obtain permission to be able to call me. This could start the beginning of a new wave of annoying telemarketers. If they want to communicate with me they can always use the US Postal Service!
